THE COMPLETE COUNSELING & THERAPY PACKAGE (Sub Only)
This multimedia text and video collection contains all 4 volumes of the library, (see above) in addition it includes:

Counseling & Psychotherapy Transcripts: Volumes I-II
6,000 transcripts of real therapy sessions, 40,000 pages of client narratives, and 25,000 pages of reference works bring the therapeutic process to life and provides unprecedented levels of access to the broadest range of clients

Social Work Online
This multimedia resource combines video — compelling documentaries and client demonstrations — with relevant text content to illustrate the complex and challenging realities social work students will face as practitioners. It provides a lens through which students can see and understand how best to serve their future clients’ needs. The 100 hours of video and 50,000 pages of text in this collection are structured around 12 of the most important topics in the social work curriculum. The pedagogical videos address the essential concepts students will employ in everyday work as practitioners. The documentaries offer real experiences that are best understood through observation — letting students consider how they might address various client issues in the field. Text content supports and expands upon the concepts taught across the curriculum, selected to add perspectives to topics that are highly relevant but not always well covered in textbooks.

Psychological Experiments Online
This multimedia resource synthesizes the most important psychological experiments of the 20th and 21st centuries, fostering deeper levels of understanding for students and scholars alike. The collection pairs 65 hours of audio and video recordings of the original experiments (when existent) with 45,000 pages of primary-source documents. It’s packed with exclusive and hard-to-find materials including notes from experiment participants, journal articles, books, field notes, letters penned by the lead psychologist, videos of modern-day replications, and modifications to the original experiments.
